

UNIVERSITY OF HOKKAIDO 2012 SEA ICE FIELD COURSE

Sea of Okhotsk and Lake Saroma, Japan

Venue

Dates: ~10-20 Feb 2012 (TBA)
Location: Sea of Okhotsk, northern Hokkaido, Japan Costs: approx $350 ex Sapparo
Language: English

Content

This course introduces physical properties of sea ice in the Sea of Okhotsk and Lake Saroma (pack ice and fast ice). It also investigates the biota living within the ice. The course is at a postgraduate level and has a BSc (or equivalent) prerequisite.

Contact

Send a personal CV (including academic transcript) with a one page explanation of how participation in this course would be beneficial to

andrew.mcminn@utas.edu.au p.virtue@utas.edu.au shigeru@lowtem.hokudai.ac.jp

More information

Check out the official webpage http://www.earth.ees.hokudai.ac.jp/IAI/english/fieldcourse_en.html#seaice